

Join us for the Third Annual Twinning Event

“Reviving Abrahamic Values”

Date: Sunday, November 20, 4PM

Where: Islamic Cultural Center
745 Heim Road, Getzville (Amherst) NY
(located between Hopkins Rd. and N. Forest)

Speakers:

Rabbi Drorah Setel

Dr. Hodan Isse, First Lady of Somalia

Topic: “Reviving Abrahamic Values.”

The three Abrahamic faiths – Judaism, Islam, and Christianity – share not only a long history but fundamental values of compassion and social justice. Do these sacred ideals still stir our souls and guide our actions, or do they lie largely dormant in a war-torn, hungry world?

General discussion to follow.

All members of the public are welcome.

Refreshments will be served!

Inspired by the Foundation for Ethnic Understanding. FFEU fosters Annual Twinning Weekends across North America and Europe.

Sponsored by the Islamic Society of Niagara Frontier, Building Bridges in Western New York, Jewish Muslim Friendship Magazine, and other members of the interfaith community.
